NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual agreements herein contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

SECTION 1. Consent and Waiver. Any provision in the Agreement or any of the Related Agreements to the contrary notwithstanding, Creditor Party hereby consents to, and waives any breach of and/or default or event of default under the Agreement and Related Agreements, by reason of Debtor Party's:

(a) transfer, directly or indirectly, of certain of its assets, whether or not any of such assets are or were intended to be Creditor Party's collateral, to the Trust and/or Assuming Party, and Assuming Party's lease of such assets to GE Subsidiary pursuant to the Master Lease and the Capital Lease, all pursuant to the Participation Agreement; or

(b) merging into or consolidating with any other entity after the date hereof.

SECTION 2. Amendments. Any provision to the contrary therein notwithstanding, the Agreement and the Related Agreements are hereby amended as follows:

(ii) Deliver to Creditor Party, within 60 days after each quarter (except the last quarter) of each fiscal year of Assuming Party, a copy of an unaudited financial statement of Assuming Party prepared in the same manner as the audit report referred to in Section 2.1(b)(i), signed by a proper accounting officer of Assuming Party and consisting of at least a balance sheet as at the close of such quarter and statements of earnings and cash flows for such quarter and for the period from the beginning of such fiscal year to the close of such quarter;

- (vi) A certificate of the [Assistant] Secretary of the Managing General Partner certifying as to (A) the Partnership Agreement of the Assuming Party, and (B) Resolutions adopted on _____, 1992 by the General Partners of the Assuming Party;
- (vii) A certificate of the [Assistant] Secretary of the Managing General Partner as to indentures, loan or credit agreements, leases, guarantees, mortgages, security agreements, bonds, notes and other agreements or instruments, and orders, writs, judgments, awards, injunctions and decrees, which affect or purport to affect the Assuming Party's right to undertake and perform its obligations under the Finance Documents; and
- (viii) A certificate of the Secretary of State of Delaware, dated _____, 1992, attesting to the continued existence and good standing of the Assuming Party in that state.

We have also examined such other certificates, opinions and instruments as we have deemed necessary as a basis for the opinions expressed below. As to questions of fact material to such opinions, we have, without independent investigation, relied upon all of the foregoing and upon certificates of the officers of the Managing General Partner and of other parties to the Finance Documents and of public officials.

Whenever our opinion with respect to the existence or absence of facts is indicated to be based on our knowledge or awareness, we are referring solely to the actual knowledge of the particular Mayer, Brown & Platt attorneys who have represented the Assuming Party and the Debtor Party in connection with the Instrument. Except as expressly set forth herein, we have not undertaken any independent investigation to determine the existence or absence of such facts and no inference as to our knowledge concerning such facts should be drawn from the fact that such representation has been undertaken by us.

For the purposes of this opinion, we have assumed that all items submitted to us as originals are authentic and all signatures thereon are genuine, all items submitted to us as copies conform to the originals, and each such item has been duly executed and delivered by each party (other than the Assuming Party and the Debtor Party) pursuant to due authorization as such party's legal, valid and binding obligation, enforceable against such party in accordance with its respective terms.

Our opinions expressed herein are limited to the laws of the State of Illinois, the State of New York, the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and the federal laws of the United States, and we do not express any opinion herein concerning any other law.

Based upon and subject to the matters stated herein and upon such investigation as we have deemed necessary we are of the opinion that:

(1) Each of the Debtor Party and the Assuming Party is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the state of its formation;

(2) The execution and delivery of the Instrument and the performance by the Debtor Party and the Assuming Party of their respective obligations under the Instrument, are within their respective organizational powers, have been duly authorized by all necessary organizational action, have received all necessary governmental approval (if any shall be required), and do not, to the best of our knowledge, contravene or conflict with any provision of law or of the organizational instruments of Debtor Party or Assuming Party, or of any agreement binding on either of them;

(3) The Instrument is, and the Agreement and Related Agreements as modified by the Instrument are, the legal, valid and binding obligations of the Debtor Party and the Assuming Party, respectively, enforceable against them in accordance with their respective terms;

(4) To the best of our knowledge, no litigation (including, without limitation, derivative actions), arbitration proceedings or governmental proceedings are pending or threatened against the Debtor Party or the Assuming Party which would restrain, enjoin, prohibit or in any way impair the transactions contemplated by the Instrument, or would, if adversely determined, materially and adversely affect the financial condition or continued operations of the Assuming Party; and

(5) The Master Lease Security Agreement is the legal, valid, and binding obligation of the Assuming Party and is enforceable against the Assuming Party in accordance with its terms.

The opinions set forth above are subject to the following:

(a) Our opinions in paragraphs 3 and 5 above are subject to the effect of any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar law affecting creditors' rights generally and to the effect of general principles of equity, including (without limitation) concepts of materiality, reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(b) We call your attention to the following matters as to which we express no opinion:

- (i) the Debtor Party's and the Assuming Party's agreements, if any, in the Finance Documents to pay interest on overdue interest;
- (ii) the existence, perfection or priority of any security interests or lien, purportedly maintained or created by any of the Finance Documents;
- (iii) the Debtor Party's and the Assuming Party's agreements, if any, in the Finance Documents to indemnify you against costs or expenses or liability arising out of or related to the entering into, performance, or enforcement of the transactions contemplated by the Finance Documents;
- (iv) fraudulent transfer laws and principles of equitable subordination;
- (v) the Debtor Party's and the Assuming Party's agreements, if any, in the Finance Documents to the jurisdiction of a particular court, to the waiver of the right to jury trial or to be served with process by service upon a designated third party; or
- (vi) Certain other provisions contained in the Finance Documents which may be limited or rendered ineffective by applicable laws or judicial decisions governing such provisions or holding their enforcement to be unreasonable under the then existing circumstances, but such laws and judicial decisions do not in our opinion render the Finance Documents invalid as a whole or leave you without remedies or without benefits from the Collateral (as such term is defined in the Master Lease Security Agreement).

This opinion is furnished to you solely in connection with the transaction described above and may not be relied upon by any one other than you and only in connection with such transaction.

Very truly yours,

MAYER, BROWN & PLATT
